Information

Use this form when you want to deregister a sole trader business, a trading partnership, a limited partnership, a non-profit association carrying on business activities or a religious community carrying on business activities. You may instead choose to use the e-service on the website verksamt.se (in Swedish only). Application for deregistration is free of charge. You will find our e-services and more information on www.bolagsverket.se.

When the enterprise or the association has been deregistered we shall send you a certificate of registration (in Swedish). Please observe that you cannot choose the date of deregistration of the enterprise or association. The deregistration will be the date of registration of the matter.

Who must sign the application?

- Sole trader business – the sole trader.
- Trading partnership – all the partners.
- Limited partnership – all the partners, both the general and the limited partner(s).
- Non-profit association carrying on business activities – a board member or the managing director.
